Note

In the wills the first date given is the date of the instrument, the second date is that of probate.

The spelling is given as found as given in the records, although a name is often spelled in several different ways in the same instrument.

Many abbreviations have been used to conserve space but hope the reader will find them to be familiar.

While I have compiled this family history for my own information and records, it affords me great pleasure to be able to pass it on to others, many who have been interested and helpful, for which I am grateful, and for the future generations. It has been deducted from every available source of information, state historical libraries, county seats in Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, and from epitaphs on tombs in old graveyards and extensive correspondence with Gooches and allied families in several states.

I hope that the reader will find the history as interesting as the research has been to me. _____

To My Ancestors

I see you toiling down the tedious years,
You bearded, bent and gaunt old pioneers,
Sowing and reaping, slowly once again,
In patience for an unborn race of men.

I see you struggling in the wilderness,
Where failure meant starvation, and success
A cabin in the clearing, rough-hewn, rude,
Garments of homespun and the humblest food.

Traditions scarcely tell me whence you came;
I only know a few of you by name,
I only know you lived and multiplied,
Quite profligate in progeny, and died.

Yet, in my heart, I know that most of you
Were strong and steadfast, and that one or two,
At least, had weaknesses that still may be Traced in the trend of atavistic me.

One was a rather worth while wight, I fear,
Who, when the bluebird whistled, spring was near,
Forsook his place -- a shiftless sluggard one --
And roamed the woods alone with rod and gun.

And a gentle dreamer was, I know,
Who, lured by shadows, let the substance go,
'Twas he who dared the raging western sea,
I'm glad he handed down his dream to me.

Introduction

"As we build let us think that we build forever, let it not be for present delight, or present use alone; let it be such work as our descendants will thank us for, and let us think as we lay stone upon stone, that a time is to come when these stones will be sacred because our hands have laid them, and that men will say as they look upon the labor and wrought substance of them, 'See, this our fathers did for us.'" --- Ruskin.

That a record of ancestry is considered of great importance is manifested in the Biblical account of seventy-six unbroken generations from Adam to Christ.

Pride of family perhaps even more than pride of Country is a commendable trait and should be cultivated.

The Gooches have just cause to be proud of their family history, traditions, and standards, while this collection of data is concerned with those members of the family who have been statesmen, military heroes, scientists, writers, and capt. of industry, it is also intended as a memorial of men and women whose very names are forgotten today; who, unnoted then as they are unremembered now, faced and solved the problems of humble living, laughed at fate and refused to be broken by misfortune; who gave sturdy children to the world -- and died.

It pleased them as a result of their sacrifice and toil there progeny might have more comforts, increased opportunities and a greater freedom -- and affectionate regard to their memory is natural to the heart. To resurrect their memories out of the mist of time, to link their lives with the evolution of events and to assign to them their share in the wonderful past should be a very lofty aspiration to every member of the Gooch family.

Gooch Gough Goffe Gough

The name of Gooch is an ancient one in England, being first found as John-fil- Gouch and in writs of Parliament 1302 as Evan-ap-Gouch. English Ancestry early mentions Peter Gooch buried at St. Margarets Chapel (part of Westminster Abbey enclosure), Ilkeleestall and brother Thomas Gooch of Yarmouth, England.

Thomas Gooch of Yarmouth, England, is father of Gov. William Gooch of Virginia and Bishop Thomas Gooch of Norfolk and Suffolk, Eng.

This Thomas Gooch is bro. of Rev. John Gooch, second Pastor James City Parish, Va. and Lieut. Col. Henry Gooch and Major Wm. Gooch of Virginia. Maj. Wm. Gooch (above) is buried at Temple Farm near Yorktown, Va. and Lieut. Col. Henry Gooch Adms. on his estate. They are mentioned in Virginia Records as uncles of Gov. Wm. Gooch of Virginia.

Bishop Thomas Gooch of England m. Mary Sherlock, dau. of Thomas Sherlock, English Clergyman and Bishop. This Thomas was son of Bishop Wm. Sherlock.

Macaulay wrote an essay on Wm. Sherlock and stated that Bishop Wm. Sherlock preached the funeral service of Queen Mary in Temple Church, London, 1694. Bishop of Ely and Bristol, Eng. Prof. of Cains College, Cambridge, Eng.

Sir Edw. was member of Parliament for East Suffolk.

Recently (1926) the N. Y. Times gave one account of the destruction by fire of "Benacre Hall," ancestral home of the Gooches. The house was an ancient one and very large. All the treasures were lost except a few paintings and one portrait by Romney. The house was occupied at the time by Sir Thomas Gooch, who had inherited it.

Another paper recently spoke of the "Ghost" of "Benacre Hall" which still haunts the chamber of its abode. This fine old manor was in Suffolk Co. Eng.

Sir William Gooch, Gov. of Virginia, b. 1681. In Eng. Army 17 yrs. retired after Scottish Insurrection 1715. Appointed Lieut. Gov. of Virginia 1727 and held this office 1749 (22 yrs). Maj. Wm. Gooch, uncle of Gov. came to Va. in 1650, died 1655, buried near Yorktown, Va. Had son William and dau. Anne. Maj. m. _____. Daughter Anne's descendants are numerous.

(Service of Maj. Wm. Gooch)

Maj. Wm. Gooch was b. 1626, d. 1655, Oct. 29th. Member of House of Burgesses 1652-1654. Member of Council 1655.

Rev. John Gooch 2nd Pastor of James City Parish, Va. d. in 1683-4.

Lieut. Col. Henry Gooch, another uncle of Gov. ads. on estate of Maj. Wm. Gooch.

The family of Gooches in Virginia, sprang from these three brothers, all of whom had children. It is generally accepted that our family sprang from Rev. John Gooch who m. Jane Jones, dau. of Rev. Rowland Jones. This Rev. Rowland Jones was 1st. Pastor Bruton Parish Church, Williamsburg, Va. (The bronze plate on the pulpit there marks this fact).

Ref. Wm. & Mary Qt. Va. Mag. states that Rev. John Gough of James City Parish m. Jane dau. of Rev. Rowland Jones, 1st. Pastor Bruton Parish Church, Williamsburg, Va. and that Rev. Rowland Jones was ancestor of Geo. and Martha Washington.

Will of Col. Wm. Claiborne states that Wm. Gooch, son of John and Jane Jones Gooch m. Ursula Claiborne dau. of Col. Wm. Claiborne (above). Will mentioned in Va. Mag. of Hist. Vol. 11, p. 318.

In another Wm. & Mary Qt. (P. 807# 1917) The Virginia House of Burgesses thanks Rev. Rowland Jones for services preached to the House 1684.

Rev. John Gooch d. 1683 and the two Clergymen were contemporaries and friends and it seems fitting that the son and dau. of the two should unite in marriage.

The Gooches were united in marriage with most of the distinguished families in Virginia at that time.

Will of Jane Gooch, widow of John 1687 mentions son William. (Vol. 5 Wm. & Mary Qt. P. 110-112).

Bishop Meade in "Old Churches and Families of Virginia" says Rev. John Gough d. 1683. Pastor of James City Parish 1676 or 1673.

Jane's will mentions her son William Gooch 1687. Va. Rec. prove that Rev. John Gooch, Lt. Col. Henry Gooch, Maj. William Gooch all three came to Va. and were bros., married and had families.

Lieut. Col. Henry Gooch of York Co. Va. was Member of

House of Burgesses and acted Gov. at absence of Gov. one year. He was in Indian Wars and in Bacon's Rebellion. Lawrence and Drummond and the rest disbanded at Col. Gooche's house in York Co. The others' homes were destroyed.

Maj. Wm. Gooch was active in Indian Wars. Was a burgess from York Co. Va. 1654 and a Councillor. He is buried at Temple Farm (Middle Plantation) near Yorktown, Virginia. His tomb bears date 1655, earliest date (legible) on any Va. tomb, and shows clearly engraved, the family Arms.

Only one dau. Anne who m. Thomas Beale, son of William Beale of Virginia. Anne was God-mother of 9th daughter of Col. William Dangerfield, and Mary Willis. The following inscription is on Maj. Wm. Gooche's tomb:

"Within this Tomb there doth interred lie
No shape, but substance, true nobility,
Itself tho' young in years but 29,
Yet graced with virtues moral and divine,
The Church from him did good participate,
In Council rare, fit to adorn a state.

Maj. Wm. Gooch of this Parish - Died Oct. 29, 1655."

Thomas Beal is mentioned again on P. 114 Apr. 1924 Va. Mag. of Hist.

Recently (about 1929) some fisherman while digging for bait found near his tomb a gold mourning ring bearing his name Maj. Wm. Gooch and date of death. This was supposed to have been worn by his widow as it was the custom in those days to do.

(Laid Atlantic Cable)

Sir Daniel Gooch of England and his son Charles, were the engineers who laid the first Atlantic cable. Sir Daniel was member of England Parliament and Chairman of Great Western Railway. Dr. Robert Gooch was Prof. of Medicine at St. Bartholomew's College, Eng. in 1830 and 1835 and after his death lectures were published. Dr. Robt. Gooch was a friend and contemporary of Sir Ashley Cooper, noted English surgeon and doctor. Prof. George Gooch of Eng. was selected as Historian to write for England a History of the World War. This Mr. Gooch in England Parliament or Member of Parliament.

One Robert Gooch of England came to Canada in early 19th century and was Warden in Cathedral of St. James at Ontario for 40 years. A tablet marks his memory.

THE VIRGINIA FAMILY LINE --- GOOCH

(Rev. John Gooch)

(Lieut. Col. Henry Gooch - brothers)

(Maj. Wm. Gooch

Rev. John Gooch and wife Jane Jones

Son - William m. Ursula Claiborne

Son - Claiborne m. Thompson

2nd. Son Rowland m. Unity West, great granddaughter of Gov. John West of Va.

Rowland's Will in Va. mentions the following children:

Claiborne-Pomphrey-Gideon- John- Rowland- Lemae-

Elizabeth 1783-1794.

All these are named in Granville Co., N. C. records, which prove these were all the same family and line of descent.

Maj. Wm. Gooch, b. 1626 in Eng. buried in Yorktown Va. 1655 son of Sir William Gooch b. 1580 Mattingham "Benacre Hall," Eng. Maj. Gooch came to America 1650 as Member of Kings Council in Virginia and married and had issue.

Daughter Anne m. Capt. Thomas Beale (issue) Several sons and one daughter, Hannah, who m. Col. Wm. Beale, Martha Washington's brother.

Sir William Gooch, "Benacre Hall" England, was father of:

Sir Thomas Gooch, "Benacre Hall" England,

- 1st. Sir Thomas Gooch, of "Benacre Hall," father of Gov. Wm. Gooch,
- 2nd. Maj. Wm. Gooch of Yorktown, Va. father of Anne.
- 3rd. Lieut. Col. Henry Gooch of Virginia.
- 4th. Rev. John Gooch (our ancestor) and others I do not know.

It is a characteristic feature of the Gooches to keep family names through every generation. Every Gooch, son of Sir William Gooch b. 1580 in England, names his first son William. This seems to have been extended down to our own family.

Gooch Arms.

Barry of right Argent and Sable - A Chevron of Argent between three (3) grayhounds of Argent.

Crest: A Grayhound or Talbot (both are used).

Motto: "Virtute et Fide."

Argent - Silver - White

Shevron is a military honor for service. Dogs or Grayhounds indicate the hunt and Country Squire, also "faithfulness."

Sable - symbol of "Constancy"

Argent - symbol of Peace and Sincerity.

Sable - Black - injured.

Intermarried with the Gooches in Virginia and North Carolina were Dudleys, Sneads, Robinsons, Claiborns, Wests and other Cavaliers who came to Virginia at the fall of Charles I by invitation of Burkley, Ludwell and Robertson. V. VL. P. 116 Va. Hist. Mag.

It is said that Gov. Wm. Gooch was most popular of Colonial Governors and was Gov. of Virginia 22 years. During his administration the population of Va. doubled 1749. A chair belonging to Gov. and Lady Gooch, is now owned by Mrs. Samuel Buxton of Newport News, Va. She was Mary Lewis, and inherited it through Eleanor Gooch Lewis, wife of Gov. Gooch's son William. A table owned by Lady Gooch is now in possession of Mrs. Marshall of Portsmouth, Va., also inherited.

Historic "Kenmore," home of Eleanor Gooch Lewis and Warner Lewis, is now a Historic Shrine.

- GOOCH - (LADY AND GOVERNOR)

Some interesting facts and traditions.

"Ladies going abroad were often asked to shop for their friends. 1752. Lady Gooch, wife of Gov., went to England and at the request of Rev. Thomas Dawson, rector then at Bruton Parish Church, bought for his wife a fashionable lace cap, handkerchief, ruffles and tuckers, a brocaded suit, a pair of stays, a pair of blue silk stockings, a blue satin petticoat, a hoop, a pair of blue satin shoes, furr trimmed, fashionable silver girdle and fan." Ref. Wm. & Mary Qt. Vol. 124 P. 196.

In 1745 Gov. Gooch recommended Rev. James Scott, for Sacred office. Gov. Gooch's letters to Bishop of London, published in Va. Mag. of Hist. Gov. Gooch as Gov. an appreciation, published in Wm. & Mary Quarterly.

Lady Gooch left a will in which she left a certain sum for upkeep of Grave Yard at "Temple Farm" Va., where her son was buried, but owing to some misunderstanding, withdrew this before her death.

She and Gov. Gooch returned to England 1749 and both died and were buried in England. There are some portraits of Eleanor Gooch Lewis and her two children at Wm. & Mary College Library. The Mace at Wm. & Mary College contains notice of Service of Gov. Gooch and his Arms.

Virginia History contains:

Dr. Blair was President of Wm. & Mary while Wm. Gooch was Gov., and had Governor's hearty cooperation in all measures for the advancement of the college. Gov. Gooch communicated Dr. Blair's death to the Bishop of London.

In 1746 and during Gooch's administration, the capitol then at Williamsburg, and largest building then in the colonies, was burned. He attributed the fire to the horrid machinations of desperate villains, instigated by infernal madness.

The Public records were saved and removed. There was an effort made to move the Capitol, but Gov. Gooch was flat-footed in favor of building on the old grounds and after vigorous fight the effort to move it was defeated. The Governor's House was overhauled previous to the arrival of Gov. Gooch and made beautiful in fresh oil and paints.

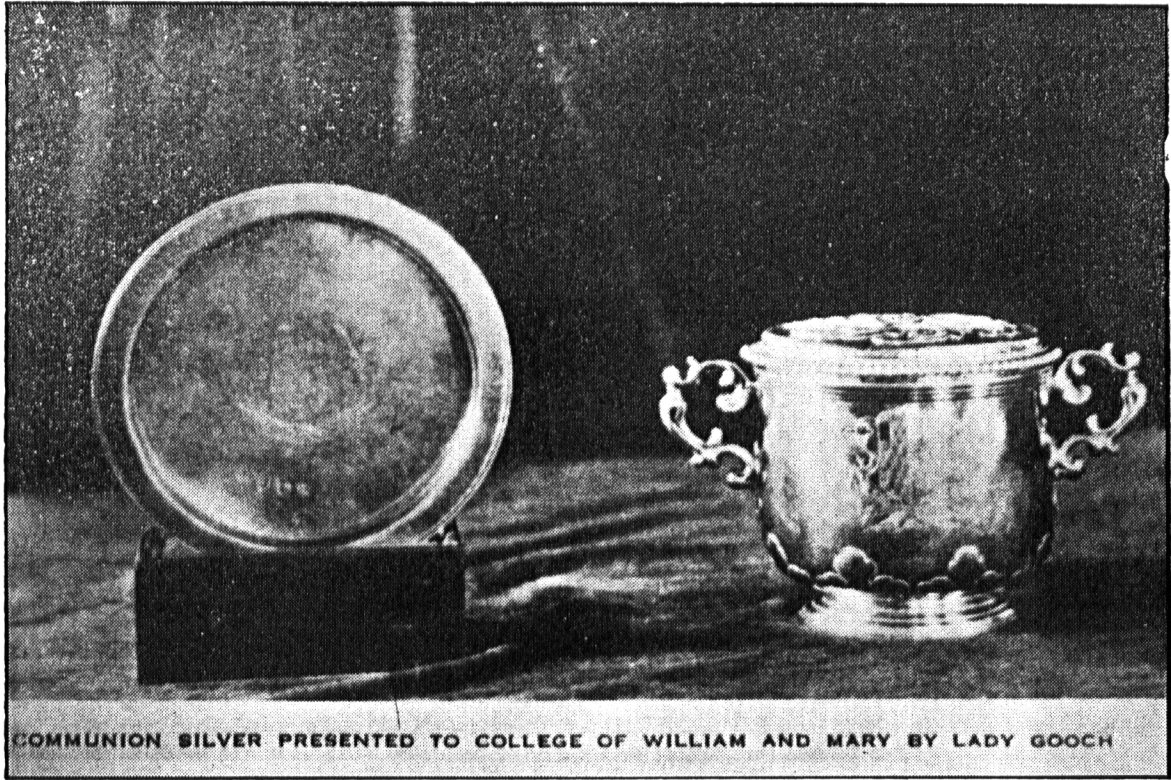

He was in English Army under Marlborough and in rebellion of 1715, and arrived in Virginia Oct. 13, 1727. In 1740 was commander General of American Army against Carthagenia, 1746 made a Baronet, later Maj. General. He returned to England 1749 after having served as successful Governor 22 years. He left John Robertson acting Governor.

Lawrence Washington, oldest brother of George, was 2nd in command in expedition to Carthagenia. While Gov. Gooch was in Central America, Dr. James Blair, acted as Governor of Virginia. Gov. Gooch was offered command of Virginia Quota of Troops for invasion into Canada, but declined.

The silver cup Lady Gooch left to Bruton Church bears date 1686 and Hallmark of Peter Haraden, whose name is found in the copper plate in Goldsmith's Hall. The paten bears a later date, 1739, and its workmanship though beautiful not quite so fine. The cup was given prize for most beautiful piece of Ch. silver in exposition recently held in Philadelphia.

"The Raleigh Tavern."

The "Apolo" was the main room in the Tavern and the word means a "Banqueting Room," such as Lucullus had in his stately villa. The room witnessed more brilliant festivities and political excitement than any other single apartment in North America, and Sir Wm. Gooch and perhaps even Spotswood were familiar with this apartment. With the advent of the Revolution it grew suddenly popular as a meeting place of the patriots. John Gooch and his son John signed petition to Oliver Cromwell. (Cromwell b. Huntington, England, 1599, d. London 1658).

COMMUNION SILVER PRESENTED TO COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY BY LADY GOOCH

Claiborne Gooch, son of Phillip Gooch and grandson of William Gooch Jr., was Adjutant General of Virginia.

Thomas Gooch was a Clergyman, pastor of an early Church in Virginia at a place called "Summerton Home," Nanseman Co. Va.

William Goffe (or Gooch) of England found refuge in Mass. in 1660. His Uncle, Col. Gooch died on the way to America and his daughter Esther Goffe (or Gooch) m. Robert Stevens of Boston 1664.

(New England Gooches came to Virginia.)

This William Gooch was commander of Cromwell's Army and at one time Judge of Charles I Court. Markham's "Real America" gives a graphic account of Robert Stevens and Esther Goffe (Gooch).

This William Goffe also signed Petitions to Cromwell.

Joseph and Daniel Gooch, who came from Virginia to N. C., fought in the Revolution, and their graves are in family burying grounds near Tar River in Granville Co. on the land they bought or was granted to them.

London, Feb. 17th, 1926 (copied from "New York Times"):

"The seventh English County Mansion to be destroyed by fire in two months and the third in three days, is today in ruins, following an all night blaze. 'Benacre Hall,' the ancestral seat of the Gooch family, headed at present by Sir Thomas Gooch, is the last fine old house to be gutted. It consisted of 150 rooms and had 365 windows.

"Among the art treasures destroyed were several glass chandeliers, which had been in the family for two or three centuries, and numerous paintings, but a portrait by Romney was saved. The fire originated in the nursery where Sir Thomas' two daughters were sleeping. They escaped before the flames had made much headway -- "

SNEADS

From all obtainable records it is agreed and proven that the genealogical line of Sneads is Samuel Snead and Alice his wife, who came to Virginia in 1625 and settled in James City, County, Va. In Virginia there are Samuel (above) Sons - William, Charles, Archibald and John and in N. C. Samuel and William etc.

Line then of Snead family-

From authentic sources, name of Snead is of great antiquity, dating back to Anglo-Saxon days, and even to time before Roman invasion.

History records- The name is taken from handle of a scythe, as Snead, and Sned, and is the first spelling given in Webster's Dictionary. The changes in spelling of name not uncommon.

Next in prominence to Alfred the Great, is Lord Henry de Sneyde prosessor of lands in family since Edward III. in 13th century He was living 1310. Henry VIII bestowed on Sir William Sneyd, property of Keele for having won in the Crusades, in the highest military order, Knights of St. John of Jerusalem, or Hospitallers.

Elizabeth Snede married Lord Audley, prominent in French Wars.

William took part in restoration of Charles II, as member of Parliament. One was sister to Lady Jane Gray, and granddaughter of King Henry VII.

The greatest distinction accorded the family was the bestowal of the national French flower on their crest for gallantry at Poictiers, as appears in Snead Coat of Arms.

Honora Sneyde, mother-in-law of Mary Edgeworth, novelist. She was an honored guest in Abbotsford. Chambers Encyclopedia alludes to Scott's visit to her home.

Interesting.

It is of interest to note that in England and Scotland the Gooches intermarried with Sneydes and Dudleys, which explains in part their interest in each other when first to America.

HISTORICAL AND BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH of the

GOOCH AND GOUCH FAMILIES

With a history older than that of most surnames and traceable in Britain to a time antecedent to the Norman Conquest, from the north which resulted in the establishment of the duchy of Normandy, the surname Gooch has never been in very common use. It has been known in England in several variant forms of similar sound -- GOCH, GOOHE, GOOGE, GOUGE, GOODGE, GUTCH and GOUCH, which in parts of England still has the pronunciation of Googe, not Goff. The frequency of occurrence in England in recent time, stated in terms of the integral numbers proportional to every ten thousand of population, has been given as fifteen for Norfolk County, with no numbers stated for other counties. The variant Gough occurs more frequently, especially in the Counties toward the border of Wales; and other variants appear less frequently. In certain directories compiled for years in the third quarter of the nineteenth century, the occurrence of Gooch, Gouch and Gutch is given as follows: Gooch--London, Norfolk and West Riding--43 Gough--Shropshire, Wiltshire, Buckinghamshire--96; Gutch--Yorkshire--2. To the Welsh, the surname Goch meant "red." William Rufus was "givilyn goch," and in the period following the Conquest there were many names of the similar use of Goch to indicate the ruddy complexion. The Gozes of Normandy were apparently the "reds" of the Danish line descending from Hrolf Turstain, a descendent of William the Conqueror. In 1196 Robert de Gouviz and his son, Raoul de Gouviz, had conferred upon the Priory of St. Barbe the rights and patronage of the Church of Gouviz, and a grant to St. Etienne shows that relationship of this Raoul to his three brothers, Robert, Geoffrey and Guillaume. In 1066 Duke William of Normandy launched his campaign against Harold and England; among his supporters are mentioned Richard Goz, Viscount of Avranches.

The lineage from Hrolf Turstain to a John Gooch of Alvingham, England, is as follows: 1. Hrolf Turstain; 2. Ansfrid Goz; 3. Amfrid Goz; 4. Turstain Goz, living in 1086; 5. Bleddyn Ap Cyfyn, died in 1075; 6. Torwerth Goch (ap Bleddyn), died in 1107; 7. Roger de Powys, died in 1787; 8. Meuric de Powys, died in 1189; 9. Wrenoc (Goronwy) de Powys, living in 1204; 10. Ionas ap Goronwy; 11. Inyr ap Inyr, died 1375; 12. Rhirid ap Inyr, died in 1375; 13. David Goch; 14. Matthew Goch, 1386-1450; 15. Geoffrey Goch, 1439-1512; 16. John Goch, 1470-1538; 17. Robert Goche (Gooch), died in 1556; 18. Barnabe Goche, 1541-1593; 19. Matthew Goche or Gooche, born in 1566, died October 1624; 20. John Gooch, younger brother, next of kin. Whether the last John Gooch of Alvingham Lincolnshire, England and John Gooch who came to America and settled in York and Wells, Maine, are the same individual is difficult to say.

Gooch of this Family was:

James Gooch, is spoken of by Cotton Mather as "the valiant Gooch or Googe," as he spelled it. Of this family was:

Sir William Gooch, Governor of Virginia, Goochland County, Va. commemorates the family, and Gooch Street, Boston.

"The genealogy of the Gooch family is worthy of investigation, by those who look with longing eyes toward the portals of patriotic societies. All doors open to the family, probably without exception, for they were up and doing, and who can say them nay, when seeking to join?"

James Gooch, (above) was the father of James Gooch, who married Elizabeth Hobby.

Elizabeth Gooch, married first John Hubbard, in 1714, and second John Franklin, brother of the one and only Benjamin Franklin.

John Gooch, was the third child of James, and married Mary Deering. Joseph, no four or Col. Joseph, "to give him his title," was born 1700. His wife was Elizabeth Valentine. With this family we have the allied families of Lynde of Boston.

Col. Joseph and Elizabeth (Valentine) Gooch were the parents of:

Elizabeth,

Joseph Jr.

Mary,
Sarah,
John,
Katherine.

The Gooches of North and South Carolina married into the Tuttle family. Dunns, Roddys, Wingoes, Ballengers and Caldwells. Sallie Tuttle married Robert Dunn, and had two sons. Robert Dunn's mother was born Lewis, a daughter of David Lewis, of Spartansburg, S. C.

The Gooch family has displayed outstanding ability in medicine, politics and literature. Among those of the name, who fought in the Revolutionary War, were:

Captain John Gooch, of Rhode Island.

Col. Thomas Gooch, of Delaware.

Benjamin, James, Jedediah, John, Joseph, Moses, Nathanial, Lieu, Samuel, Thomas and William of Mass. and Maine.

Lieu, William and Pruney Gooch, and others of Virginia and many more from other states of that period. A few of the many numbers of the families who have distinguished themselves in America in more recent times are:

Daniel W. Gooch, (1820-1891) of Maine and Mass, Lawyer and Congressman.

Edward S. Gooch (1900), of Ky. and Ill., Physician and Surgeon.

Joel M. Gooch (1900), of La. and Texas, Physician and Surgeon.

D. Linn Gooch (b. 1852), Mass. Educator, chemist, author.

Rev. John Gooch was minister at Jamestown during this time. He died Jan. 15th, 1683-4. He m. at least twice and had by 1st. marriage William Gouge (Gooch). He married 2nd. Jane sister of Rev. Rowland Jones of the neighboring Parish of Bruton, and her issue mentioned in the latter's will were Henry, Rowland, Jane and Elizabeth Gooch. Ref. Wm. & Mary Mag, Quat. Vol. V.

Claiborne Gooch was living 1748 in King Wm. Co. Va. opposite to "Sweet Hall." Honing VI P. 17. He was prob. the father of Rowland, whose will was proved in Louisa Co. Va. Dec. 8th, 1794. Rowland's wife was Unity. He had issue: (1) William, (2) Claiborne, (3) John, (4) Rowland, (5) Lanea, (6) Elizabeth. In the same records is a deed of gift from Luvinah Clements, wife of William. Will proved 1780, son of Rowland to her daughters Mary, Jemimah, and Sallie Gooch b. Feb. 16, 1769. Ref. I think same as above.

Rev. Rowland Jones, 1st. wife Elizabeth was undoubtedly the mother of his two eldest children, Robert and William. Rev. Rowland Jones Will Yorktown made Aug. 15th 1867-1868. We would infer that he was by no means dependent upon his ministerial salary, as he made comfortable provisions for his widow and his four children, with handsome legacies to his sister Jane Gooch and her children, Henry, Rowland, Jane and Elizabeth.

Ref. Wm. & Mary's Quartly. Vol. V.

The name of Gooch is said to be derived from the ancient baptismal name of Guch or Goch. The Welsh Goch meant "red" and was frequently used to indicate the ruddy complexion or the color of the hair of its first bearers. In ancient English and early American records the name is found in the various forms of Guche, Guch, Goch, Goche, Gouch, Gutch, Goodge, Gudge, Goudge, Gouge, Googe, Gough, and Gooch. The last mentioned of these spellings is that most generally used in America to-day.

Families bearing this name were to be found at early dates in the English Counties of York, Norfolk, Essex, Lincoln, Salop, Wilts and Cambridge and were, for the most part, of the landed gentry and nobility of Great Britain.

One of the earliest known progenitors of the family was Iorwerth Goch, who married Matilda de Manley. They had two sons, Roger and Ionas, of whom the former was the father of three sons, Mereduc, Meuric, and Ian. Of these, Meuric, Knight and Lord of Whittington in the year 1187, was the father of two sons, Wrenoc and Wenneon or Owain. Wrenoc, who died in 1204, was the father of Roger and Ionas. Of these, Ionas married Gwladys, daughter of Adam Herbert and had issue by her of a son called Inyr ap Ionas, ap being the Welsh for "son of." Rhirid ap Inyr, son of Inyr ap Ionas, left one son, David Goch, when he was killed in a sea fight at the relief of Rochelle. David Goch married Catherine, Daughter of Howel ap David, and was the father by her of Matthew Gooch. Matthew Gooch married Margaret Moythe and had issue by her of Geoffrey, Matthew, David and Margaret. Geoffrey, the eldest of these children, was father of two sons, John and Hugh, and of a daughter named Maude. Robert son of John and Jane, had a son named Barnabe or Barnaby who married Mary Darnell and had six sons, Matthew, Thomas Barnaby,

William, Henry, and Robert, and two daughters, Mary and Anne. The eldest of the sons, Matthew, married Alice Coney and had issue by her of Barnaby, Robert, Thomas, John, Alice, Mary, William, Anne Elizabeth, Francis, Matthew, Jeffry and Henry.

Another early line of the family of Welsh descent was represented before 1500 by Blethyn Gooch, who was the father of Meredyth Gooch. Jerworth Gooch, the son of Meredyth, had one son named Meredyth. This Meredyth Gooch married the daughter of Herbert of Monmouth and had a son named Jerworth, Richard Gooch, of London the son of the last mentioned Jerworth, married Lucye Griffith and had issue by her of William, who settled in County Essex. William was the father of three sons, Roger, Julyan, and Thomas, as well as of several daughters.

Yet another branch of this family, dating from 1500, are the descendants of John Gooch. He was the father of Gregory, John, Richard, Jan or Jane, Jowan, and Katherine. The eldest son Gregory, was the father of John, Rys, Dawkyn, Siswsan, Ann, and Katherine.

As early as 1537 there was a Thomas Gooch who lived at Mattingham County Suffolk. He was probably related to Robert Gooch of Bungay, who had a son named William who married Martha Laver and had three children, William, Thomas, and Barbara. The eldest of these, William, married Elizabeth Baspoole and had issue by her of Richard, Thomas, Martha and Barbara. Richard married Anne Coleman, by whom he had four children, Mary, Elizabeth, Francis, and William. Thomas, second son of William and Elizabeth (nee Baspoole) Gooch, married Francis Lane and had two sons, Thomas and William, and two daughters, Francis and Matilda. Thomas became Bishop of Bristol and was the second Baronet of his family. His brother, William became Lieutenant Governor of Virginia and the first Baronet of the family. One of the earliest representatives of the Gooch family to appear in this country was Matthew Gooch, but the connection between him and the family in England is not in evidence. He arrived in Virginia 1635, and on the 20th of July, 1639 he received a patent for three hundred and fifty acres of land in Henrico County.

Another early immigrant to this country was John Gooch. He received a land grant at York Me., 1640 and in 1652 moved further up the coast line and settled in the newly made town of Wells, in the same Colony. John married Ruth Hammond and had five children, John, Francis, Ruth, Elizabeth and James.

John Gooch, elder son of the emigrant John Gooch, left issue by his wife Lyda of two sons, John and Benjamin, and may have had other issue as well.

Of the sons of the second John of Maine, the elder died young and without issue, while Benjamin had issue by his wife Mary of Benjamin, John, Jedediah and Mary. Benjamin, eldest son of Benjamin and Mary, married Deborah Murch and had issue by her of nine children, Benjamin, Hannah, John, James, Olive, Sarah, Molly, William and Eben. John, second son of Benjamin and Mary, married Elizabeth Boothbay, who had issue of Mary, Elizabeth, Benjamin, Samuel, John, Nathaniel and Sarah.

Jedediah, third and youngest son of Benjamin and Mary, had issue by his wife, Hannah Mower, of seven children, Keziah, Susanna, Dorothy, Abigail, Jedediah, Joseph, and Samuel.

James Gooch the second son of the immigrant John, had three children. James, Hannah and Mary, but the name of his wife is not of record.

James, only son of the first of the name, had four children, James, Elizabeth, John and Joseph.

James, eldest son of the second James, Married Elizabeth Hobby

They had three children, Elizabeth, James and Hannah. In a second marriage, to Hester Plaisted, he had six more children, but of these only William survived to maturity.

John, second son of the second James, married Mary Deering but no record of his children is at hand.

Joseph, third and youngest son of the second James, married Elizabeth Valentine and had issue by her of Elizabeth, Joseph, John, Mary and Sarah John and Katherine.

Some other early emmigrants to Virginia were Henry and Maj. William Gooch, who were probably brothers. Major William died in York County in 1655. Henry was a justice of that County and Lieutenant Colonel in the York Militia. He married Jane Jones, daughter of the Reverend Rowland Jones of Bruton, but his records are not complete.

Another member of the family, who was born at Yarmouth, Eng. in 1681, arrived in Virginia in Oct., 1727, and later became a major general in the Virginia militia. He married Rebecca Stanton, by whom he had at least one son named William.

William Gooch, probably descended from one of the above-mentioned Virginia families, was living in Hanover County, Va. before 1750. He removed to Amherst County, and was a father of a son named William who made his home in Albemarle County. The last William died in 1796, leaving issue by his wife, Lucy of Matthew, Phillip, Dabney C., Nicholas, William, Thomas, Elizabeth, Martha, Susan and Mary, of whom Nicholas founded the Kentucky branch of this family. (?)

Others of the name who settled in New England in the Seventeenth century were Robert Gooch, who died at Pemaquid, Me., in 1667 and Edward Gooch or Gouge, who was living at Boston, Mass., in 1685. The records of these early settlers are not, however, complete.

One of the most frequently used of the several coats of Arms of the English family of Gooch, from which most (if not all) Americans of the name trace their descent, is that described in heraldic terms as follows (Burke, Encyclopedia of Heraldry, 1844)

Arms.-- "Per pale, argent and sable, a chevron between three talbots passant counterchanged; on a chief gules as many leopards heads or."

Crest.-- "A talbot passant per pale, argent and sable."

Motto.-- "Fide et virtute."

My great-grandfather was Jacob Gooch. He was killed while serving as Sheriff in Kentucky. He was related to Gov. William Gooch of Virginia and to Col. Henry Gooch of Bacon's Rebellion, but I do not know how. Can you assist me? Who is State Librarian of Virginia? Answer: Referring to Woods History of Albemarle County, Va. we find that the name Gooch was written in the early records as Gouch, Gouge. William Gooch came to Albemarle from Hanover County. In 1751 he bought land in the Everettsville neighborhood, which he sold nine years later to Benjamin Snead. It is believed he removed to Amhurst.

Another William Gooch, prusumably his son, purchased land on the south fork of the Hardware in 1764, but in 1770 began buying in the Ragged Mountains south of Ivy Depot, and there fixed his residence. He died in 1796. He and his wife Lucy had 10 children Matthew, Phillip, Dabney C. Nicholas L. William, Thomas W. Elizabeth, the wife of Nathan Dedman; Martha, the wife of William Thurmond; Susan, and Mary, the wife of William Moore.

Matthew who was admitted to the Albemarle bar in 1796, and Nicholas removed to Kentucky; Phillip removed to Amhurst. Dabney married Elizabeth, daughter of Rev. William Irvin of the South Garden, and had a daughter Mary, the wife of her cousin Dr. William F. Gooch. He died in 1844. Thomas married Nancy, another daughter of Mr. Irvin. He died 1838.

Another person bearing the name of Gooch belonged to the County in former times. He married Sarah, daughter of David Wood, and sister of the elder Drury. He had four sons and five daughters, two of the sons, John and Rowland, appear to have owned land on Rough Run, a branch of Moorman's River. They all removed to Lincoln County, Kentucky, probably in the closing years of the last century.

Save for a short relapse a few months later his pledge was kept and ere long as a Temperance Lecturer he became one of the most popular of public speakers in America and England, which he visited on Temperance tours 1853-55 1857-60 1879. In later life he handled literary and social topics as well as Temperance themes in his lectures. He was long and a prominent and useful member of Olive Branch Church in Hopkins Co. Ky., before he entered the ministry. He was licensed to preach, in 1863 and ordained the following year. His preaching talent was very moderate, but he was a man of so much practical wisdom, of such exalted piety and so consecrated a zeal and diligence that perhaps no preacher in the Association accomplished more for the cause of Christ during the brief period of his ministry.

In 1727 Govenor Gooch wrote to his brother: "The Gent^m and Ladies here are perfectly well bred, not an ill Dancer in my Govm^t."

Indeed, Governor Gooch, having listed in a letter the cost of "proclaiming His Majesty 50g, his birthday near 100g, Prince Fed-rick's 20g" complained to his brother, "These are the things to which I am exposed, so that I have very little reason to expect to make a fortune, or enough to keep me when I grow old, unless my stars are more favorable." Despite the eloquence of the Governor however a strong sentiment immediately arose in the general assembly favoring the removal of the seat of Government to a more central location and a place commodious for trade and navigation" It was by a vote of 40 to 38 that an act entitled "An Act of rebuilding the Capitol, in the city of Williamsburg" was passed in 1748. In 1751 the erection of the second Capitol was begun and the building was completed in 1753.

Alfred The Great

Alfred the Great: 849-901., youngest son of Ethelwolf King of the West Saxons. After the death of his brother, Ethelred (871) Alfred was made King, when 22 yrs. old he conquered the Danes, who invaded his country. He had traveled extensively with his father and liked the culture of the Romans and Franks. He was an accomplished musician and writer and influenced his people to use the English language. Founded Oxford University - took part in 56 battles, by sea and land, but was admired more as a legislator than as a warrior..

Reigned over 28 years - was survived by his wife, Queen Elswitha, 2 sons and 3 daughters, His 2nd son Edward, succeeded to the throne 901 A. D. He practically founded the British Navy; reorganized the national defences; raised public buildings; reclaimed waste lands; and revised all existing laws, combining those which he found good into a single code.

He established schools, encouraged literature in the native tongue, and improved the services of the church.

Alfred's principal writings are as follows: A translation of the History of Orosius; a translation of Bede's Ecclesiastical History; a translation of the De Consolatione Philosophiae of Boetius; and a close translation of Gregory's Cura Pastoralis and Dialogues. There are lives of Alfred by Asser, Reinhold Pauli, Thomas Hughes, Plummer and Draper.

Some Facts About The J. G. Gooch Family

My grandparents, Thomas Gooch and Lucinda Gillentine his wife lived in South Carolina. I have no record of the date of their births or marriage. They had four children, John Gillentine, Jesse, Nicholas, and Lucinda. They moved with their family from South Carolina to West Tennessee in 1823, and settled in the south western part of what is now McNairy Co.

My father, John Gillentine Gooch was born in South Carolina Oct. 15, 1809 m. Louvina Brumbelcw Sept. 30, 1830. He purchased a small tract of land and built a two room house that year for their home. During the years that followed he added land enough to make a plantation of sixteen hundred acres and built new additions from time to time, replacing the original log rooms chinked with clay and stick and clay chimney, with weather-boarded and ceiled rooms and brick chimneys where he lived until his death in Aug. 1885.

From early life he was inclined to serve the people of his county in a public way was elected Justice of the Peace in 1832 and re-elected successively for 53 years, being Notary Public during the tenure of office and Chairman of the County Court, which was held at Purdy near Bethel Springs and only a short distance from what is now Selmer Tenn. On the Mobile and Ohio R. R.

There were nine children born to this union, names John, Thomas, Lucinda, Nicholas, Jesse, William, Andrew, Willy B. Terry, and Annie Louvenia. Nicholas died at the age of 15 months. Lucinda married James Dunaway and Annie Louvenia married James Granthem

Their mother died Nov. 21, 1844.

Father married my mother, Nancy Adeline Rains May 5, 1845; They had 13 children, Names: James Warren, Taylor, Henry Clay, Carroll Moore, Polly Elizabeth, Marian, Delphina, Lucy Caroline, Amanda Jane, Taylor, Marian, and Delphina died during infancy. The rest lived to become heads of families.

My fathers sister Lucinda, married James Dunaway. His brothers Nicholas and Jesse married my mother's sisters Polly and Lucinda Rains.

My husband was Pleasant Joseph Howard born near Paris in Henry Co. Tenn. He volunteered quite young and served through the Civil War. Taught school after the war and later became engaged in the retail grocery business. We were married Feb. 18, 1886. Moved from Falcon Tenn. to Benton Ill. 1890. Had three children: Clara, Carl Gooch and Claudia, who died when 15 months old. Mr. Howard died Nov. 5, 1905 at our home in Benton Ill.

Our two children Clara Howard Clevenger and Carl Gooch Howard are teachers. Clara married Lewis Clevenger who is also a teacher. They each have a Ph.D. degree from Cornell University at Ithaca N.Y. are members of the Northeast Missouri St. Teachers College, Kirksville Mo. Carl Gooch Howard has B.S. degree from University of Ill. masters from Univ. of Wyo. Is member of faculty of St. College of Agriculture at Las. Cruces New Mexico.
